Respondent

Coram : S.S. Sandhu, Member (A)

Date : 13th May,2019.

None present.

2. The application was listed for hearing on several occasions. However, it is seen that appellant has not attended the hearing despite several chances given in the interest of natural justice to appear in the matter. None from the respondent also remained present.

3. From the above, it is made out that appellant is not interested in prosecuting the appeal. In result, the application for condonation is rejected. Consequently, the appeal is dismissed for want of prosecution.

4. Parties be informed accordingly.
